

Turn to Busan, Nov. 10, 2013, Ottawa
Since it's inception in 2007(I believe) the turn to Busan has being gaining momentum each year. Here is a collage of photos from the Ottawa ceremony's that occurred on Nov. 10. Why Nov. 10th? Well as any Korea veteran will tell you that when you cross the International Dateline in the Pacific ocean, you suddenly lose a day and November 10th becomes Nov 11th. Therefore the Canadian ceremony has to be held on Nov. 10 to coincide with South Korea's on Nov 11.

Lt. Commander, Bill Black, Royal Canadian Navy, President of the Ottawa Chapter of Korea War Vets. was the emcee for the Turn to Busan on Nov. 10, 2013. He is one of the many KVA veterans that work tirelessly to insure that the fallen are not forgotten.

Special thanks to “Cathy and John Merry” for the excellent photos of the event.
Your dad would be proud.
